

Book Week Scotland

Celebrate books and reading, wherever you are!

Book Week Scotland is an annual celebration of books and reading. Events will be taking place in Dundee Libraries from 21 to 26 November. Many of our libraries are hosting special Bookbug Sessions. Please check with your local library for more details.

Monday 21 November 6.30-7.30pm Central Library, The Wellgate, Dundee DD1 1DB Take the Stress Test with Ian Robertson

Psychologist and neuroscientist Professor Ian Robertson's latest work is a highly enjoyable and interesting book on modern stress research. In it he explains why we react to pressure in the way we do, how we can shape our brain's response and answer the question: can stress ever be a good thing?

This is a free event for adults. Tea and coffee will be available from 6pm and Waterstones Dundee will have Ian's books available for sale and signing.

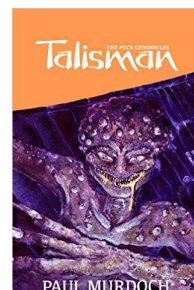

So if you want to know how to use pressure to become stronger and sharper, book your place at leisure.reading@leisureandculturedundee.com or call 01382 431500.

Wednesday 23 November 7-8pm Broughty Ferry Library, Queen Street, Broughty Ferry DD5 2HN The Comet Seekers by Helen Sedgwick.

Helen Sedgwick has an MLitt in Creative Writing and won the Scottish Book Trust New Writers Award in 2012

Described as One Day meets The Time Traveller's Wife, this debut novel from a former research physicist uses comets as a way of bridging time in a scientific romance that follows its characters from 1066 to present day Antarctica.

Wednesday 23 November 10am Central Library, The Wellgate, Dundee DD1 1DB Peck chronicles, major new fantasy series by Paul Murdoch aka Sam Wilding

Workshop Paul Murdoch aka Sam Wilding - 2 for the price of one!

Children from Primary 7 at Rosebank Primary School will be enjoying a fascinating interactive workshop with this children's author and ambassador for Asthma UK

Thursday 24 November 2-3pm Central Library, The Wellgate, Dundee DD1 1DB An afternoon of "Bloody Torment" with TF Muir

TF Muir's Detective Chief Inspector Andy Gilchrist has another crime to solve in the old grey town of St Andrews. When a two year old girl is reported missing, Gilchrist is assigned to the case, but he suspects that the child's mother may be responsible for her daughter's disappearance, or worse, her murder.

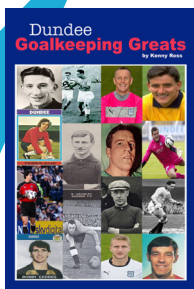

Blood Torment is Frank's sixth police procedural and has been described as "a slow burn thriller that is impossible to put down" by Caro Ramsay.

This is a free event for adults. Tea and coffee will be available from 2pm and Waterstones Dundee will have Frank's books available for sale and signing.

To book your place to hear Frank talk about the dark side of St Andrews,
