	Author	Title	Copies
	ADICHI, C.N	Purple Hibiscus	8
		When Nigeria begins to fall apart under a military coup, Kambili's father sends her and her brother away to their aunt's. Here she discovers love and a life beyond the confines of her father's authority.
	ANTHONY, G	In the Shadow of the Wall	9
		In A.D. 196 Brude, a young pictish warrior, leaves his home in the village of Broch Tava to join a raid on the Roman province beyond the wall. Captured after a disastrous battle, only his dreams of home and the childhood sweetheart he left behind allow him to survive life as a slave.
	ARCHER, J	The Sins of the Father	6
		In this epic novel, family loyalties are stretched to their limits as secrets unravel, and the story moves from the backstreets of Bristol to the boardrooms of Manhattan. Join the great storyteller on a journey where there are no stop signs, no cul-de-sacs and no dead ends.
	ATWOOD, M	The Handmaid's Tale	7
		The Republic of Gilead allows Offred only one function - to breed. If she deviates, she will, like all dissenters, be hanged at the wall or sent out to die slowly of radiation sickness.
	AUSTEN, J	Pride and Prejudice	5
		One of the best loved and most intimately known of Jane Austen's novels. Her sense of comedy and satire makes this an enduring classic of English literature.

	BALDACCI, D	The Innocent	8
	Freelance hitman Will Robie has a mission which takes him first to Edinburgh and then to Tangier. His task is to eliminate suspected enemies of the US government. But back in DC, when government employee Denise Tamaron is detailed as his next target, Robie fails to pull the trigger. Why does she pose a threat to national security?
	BANKS, I	The Crow Road	10
	Prentice McHoan has returned to the bosom of his Scottish family. Relations with his father are strained, his brother is funnier and better-looking than he is, and the woman of his dreams is out of reach.
	BARBARY, M	The Elegance of the Hedgehog	8
	Renée is the concierge of a grand Parisian apartment building. But beneath this façade lies the real Renée: passionate about culture and the arts, and more knowledgeable in many ways than her outwardly successful employers.
	BARKE, J	The Wind That Shakes The Barley	10
	This is the classic novel of the life and times of Robert Burns. Although he died at the age of just thirty-seven, Burns had lived an extraordinary life, becoming one of the most talented and respected writers we have ever produced.
	BARCLAY, L	Never Saw it Coming	6
	Keisha passes herself off as a psychic. The truth is her real powers have more to do with separating families from their money than actually seeing into the netherworld. Her latest mark is a man whose wife disappeared a week ago. The trouble is, her vision happens to be close enough to the truth that it may very well leave Keisha dead.

	Author	Title	Copies
	BIRKEGAARD, M	The Library of Shadows	8
		Imagine that some people have the power to affect your thoughts and feelings when you read. They can seduce you with amazing stories, conjure up vividly imagined worlds but also manipulate you into thinking exactly what they want you to.
	BOLING, D	Guernica	9
		'Guernica' is a debut novel telling the story of two families set before and during the Spanish Civil War, revolving around the bombing of Guernica.
	BOYD, W	Brazzaville Beach	7
		On Brazzaville Beach, on the edge of Africa, Hope Clearwater examines the complex circumstances that brought her there. Sifting the details for evidence of her own innocence or guilt, she tells her engrossing story.
	BRADFORD, B.T	Secrets from the Past	6
		Thirty-year-old Serena Stone is a war photographer who has followed in her famous father's footsteps. When her legendary father dies unexpectedly, she steps away from the war zone to reassess her life.
	BRONTE, C	Jane Eyre	6
		A story of passionate love, travail and final triumph. The relationship between the heroine and Mr Rochester is only one episode, albeit the most important, in a detailed fictional autobiography.

	BROOKMYRE, C	Bedlam	6
Heaven is a prison. Hell is a playground. Would it be your ultimate fantasy to enter the world of a video game? Or would it be your worst nightmare? Stuck in an endless state of war and chaos where the pain and fear feels real and from which not even death can offer an escape. This is 'Bedlam'.
	BROOKMYRE, C	When The Devil Drives	7
Is the devil merely the name we give the worst in ourselves? When private investigator Jasmine Sharp is hired to find Tessa Garrion, a young woman who has vanished without trace, it becomes increasingly clear that there are those who want her to stay that way.
	BROWN, D	Inferno	9
Set in the heart of Europe, 'Inferno' follows renowned Harvard symbologist Robert Langdon as he becomes drawn into a harrowing world centred around one of history's most enduring and mysterious literary masterpieces: Dante's Inferno.
	BUTCHER, T	Blood River	7
'Blood River' is a readable account of an African country now virtually inaccessible to the outside world and what is possibly one of the most daring and adventurous journeys a journalist has made.
	BYATT, A.S	The Children's Book	8
A panoramic novel of family secrets, the damage wrought by writers of children's books on their children, predators and innocents, war and peace, art and society set against a backdrop of a bohemian, artistic late Victorian and Edwardian world.

WATSON, S.J*Before I Go to Sleep*12

Memories define us. So what if you lost yours every time you went to sleep? Your name, your identity, your past, even the people you love - all forgotten overnight. And the one person you trust may only be telling you half the story. Welcome to Christine's life.

WAUGH, E*Brideshead Revisited*11

Written at the end of the World War II, this novel mourns the passing of the aristocratic world which Waugh knew in his youth and recalls the sensuous pleasures denied him by the austerities of war.

WEIR, A*Innocent Traitor*8

Lady Jane Gray was born into extremely dangerous times. Child of a scheming father and a ruthless mother, she lived a life in thrall to political machinations and lethal religious fervour.

WILLIAMS, N*John*9

A prodigious feat of imagination written with poetic vision, and an unforgettable validation of courage and faith. Romantic, wild and passionate, 'John' is the story of what it might be to love for a lifetime.
