WELCOME

Our Spring brochure has a host of superb shows, some returning favourites and a number brand new to Dundee.

We Welcome in 2020 with the Scottish Chamber Orchestra's New Year Gala concert a lovely treat to kick start the New Year.

The music of Cliff Richard is celebrated in Wired for Sound starring Jimmy Jemain, the official UK No1 Cliff Richard tribute.

Britain's Got Talent's most famous contestant Susan Boyle makes a return visit to the Caird Hall on her Ten Tour with her special guest the 2011 BGT winner Jai McDowall.

The Friends of the Caird Hall Organ are celebrating their 10th Anniversary in 2020 a huge landmark for the charity and are presenting a unique Concert with the Scott Brothers, Tom on piano and Jonathan on our Harrison & Harrison Organ. This will be the first full Concert with our new Steinway Concert Grand Piano and the organ, not to be missed.

The music of the incredible Tina Turner is celebrated in What's Love Got To Do With It, a high energy Show featuring Tina's best loved hits performed by Elesha Paul Moses.

This is only a sampling of the many fabulous shows appearing this Season. Do take time to check out the full brochure and book your tickets soon.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Caird hall.

+ Special Guests

Tuesday 10 Mar
7.30pm

A long time ago, a long way from anywhere, in a West Australian mining town called Kalgoorlie, the legend of Kevin Bloody Wilson was born. It all started innocently enough - just a guy with too much time on his hands changing the words to other people's songs, and writing a few of his own, purely for the fun of it.

The bawdy ballad has been around forever. Yet, in today's politically correct times, it seems only one person is perpetuating and preserving this unique art form - KEVIN BLOODY WILSON.

The Music of John Williams

John Williams at the Oscars

With over 50 nominations and five awards, no movie composer has conquered the Oscars as completely as John Williams. And with scores like Star Wars, Superman, E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial, Jaws, Schindler's List and Saving Private Ryan, that's no surprise!

Hear all those favourites - and many more- played live by the Royal Scottish National Orchestra in this full-scale symphonic tribute.

Richard Kaufman - Conductor

Dundee Symphony Orchestra Spring Concert

Saturday 28 Mar
7.30pm

Setting the scene for our spring concert is 'Morning, noon and night in Vienna' by Suppé.

This contrasts with the more serious, but beautiful, voice of Brahms in his only violin concerto; rightly considered to be one of the great four German violin concerti.

For this performance we are delighted to be able to welcome back Anna-Liisa Bezrodny, who is always a joy for DSO to perform with.

We end by welcoming spring with Schumman's first symphonic work - the Spring Symphony.

Dante String Quartet and Daniel Tong

Tuesday 14 January 7.30pm

The Dante Quartet are frequent performers in the Wigmore Hall and in Britain's other major venues and music festivals. Its prize-winning recordings regularly receive enthusiastic reviews.

As a pianist, Daniel Tong is a distinguished soloist and performer and a notable broadcaster, teacher and writer on music.

Engegård Quartet

Tuesday 11 February 7.30pm

One of Norway's leading string quartets, the Engegård Quartet was formed in 2006.

They play the familiar quartet repertoire, of course, but are also keen to do justice to music by Scandinavian composers, as their programme for us shows. It places quartets by Sibelius (his 'Voces Intimae' quartet) and Grieg (op27) alongside Mozart's quartet K421.
