ID	POTENTIAL MAJOR EVENT IDEAS - OTHER	Theme	CAT
4578	The Breaking the Law downhill skateboarding event a permanent feature and for it to be transformed into a mini weekend long music, food, sustainability and extreme sports festival up the Law. I would also like to see the vast amounts of empty warehouses and buildings turned into community workshops/spaces. Dundee needs to encourage small startups and sustainable/environmental initiatives. I would also like to see more fruit trees and community garden space. There is a vast amount of unused space in Dundee that could be used. More palces like the tin roofs studios or wasps, or skill share spaces.	environment	M
4579	A city-wide festival of design, with a Thomas Heatherwick installation in City Square. Be great to see something like his Shanghai Pavilion in the middle of town. He's a Dundee Uni honorary graduate as well, so there is a connection.	other	M
4610	A National Theatre Live performance to take place in Dundee and be shown across the rest of the UK.	people	M
4613	A radio station run by and for young people and their communities and broadcasting to the city or online. The model for this can be found at BBG1 in Baldragon Academy in the north of the city. Through the school system young people would be engaged in the programming, content and delivery of broadcasts to their peers and communities. Quality would be assured by school staff.	people	M
4649	A day of celebration of Dundee's Great War Poets: Linton, Lee & Nicholson, makes 3.	people	M
4707	the City square as a 'meeting place' or cultural crucible with a cafe culture - how my grandmother describe it to be. Citizens of the city used to meet at the 'Pillars' (the old town hall). Resurrect the 'spirit of the pillars' - it used to be a special meeting place for the people of Dundee.	environment	M
4770	More choice in evening and night time leisure activities, for example late nights at the museums, events in parks; a night time cafe at Mills Observatory, full moon hikes, midnight iceskating/swim/dodgeball. Not necessarily night time, but would love a river boat tour of the tay (a good storyteller telling tales of the tay where they took place, and could have an outdoor museum element with lighting/projections of short films/images marking the sites of interest)	people	M
4852	An oral history project to catalogue the fascinating experiences of people who have seen so much change in our city (and the world). This might be a way to involve older people, possibly in homes or sheltered housing complexes (with their permission obviously!) and recognise the fact that 'new Dundee' evolved, rather than just appeared.	people	M
4877	An empathetic commemoration of William McGonagall, widely reviled as the worst poet on earth! His works provide entertainment (which is why he wrote them) and (unknown to him) a social history of late 19th-century Dundee, its attitudes and priorities. He died in embarrassed poverty and in the modern era would have been a tabloid or reality-tv celebrity! He is part of Dundee's culture!	people	M
4892	We have a fantastic repertory theatre and I would love to see an outdoor performance outside during the summer. Somewhere with great views as a perfect backdrop to the performance, possibly as a centrepiece to a festival celebrating Dundee and the arts :)	other	M
4981	Dundee- City of 7's. Make attractions at all 7 city gates: nethergate, wellgate, cowgate, seagate, overgate, murraygate and marketgate. Also celebrate 7 hills that city stands on (like Rome!): Law, Balgay, Hawkhill, Gallowhill, Barnhill, Forthill and menzieshill.	other	M
5115	music and literature are strong in Dundee - pop up story telling, poetry and music (acoustic, folk, classical) at random places (seabreas, city square, overgate, baxter park), not huge events just happenings	people	M
5173	outdoor (indoor) screening of Mike Gibb's Dundee Trilogy.	people	M
