Criteria for Supported Access Scheme:

- Athlete must be a Dundee resident (with exceptions for national athletes who live just out with the Dundee boundary*)
- Athlete must be a current selected member for a national squad by a National Governing Body recognised by sportscotland
- Only the named athlete must use the membership card provided through this agreement
- Agreement is only valid for additional training out with club training sessions
- Athletes agree to participate in promotion of the National Athlete Access Programme
- For sport specific facility use, access will be in line with the risk assessments for the facility and activity
- Sport specific access will only be available during off-peak times
- Access to facilities will only be available during normal operating hours for the facility
- This programme does not apply to current Leisureactive members. There must be a period of 6 months between the cancellation of a Leisureactive membership and an application to join the National Athlete Access Programme.

*Athletes who live in close proximity to Dundee, and Dundee facilities are closer than the facilities in their own region to access could be accommodated within this agreement - this is at the discretion of Leisure & Culture Dundee.
